PATROLMEN FOR COUNTY PICKED BY COMMITTEE

Five Men Engaged at Salary Reduction Of 25 Percent

No changes have been made in the list of patrolmen on the county highway system it was announced today by County Superintendent of Highways Fred W. Leake, at a meeting of the road and bridge committee. The long list of applications were considered by the committee at its session yesterday afternoon and the patrolmen for the coming season were hired as follows: C. T. Garland of Amboy, LeRoy Chaon of Compton, Charles Hare of Scarboro, Robert Thrasher of Hammon and Edward Dempsey of Dixon.

A reduction in salary of 25 per cent was required of the patrolmen, all of whom accepted the jobs at a salary of $75 per month. The road and bridge committee agreed to advance the sum of ten dollars for the first half month to purchase state licenses for the cars or trucks used by the individual patrolmen and to pay the expense of maintaining a telephone in their residence for the eight-month period.

On account of the limited funds available for road and bridge purposes this year, the committee appointed no employees for the two large road building units, and by agreement it was decided that these would not be used this season except in cases of emergency. The patrol season starts March 15 and will terminate November 15.

Former Bureau Co. Man Dies In Omaha

Omaha, Neb., Feb. 3 — (AP) — Charles C. Shepard, 74, for many years nationally prominent in the steel industries, died at his home here today after several months illness.

He had lived here with a son since 1929.

A native of Kendall county, Ill., Shepard became General Manager of the Buda Foundry & Manufacturing Company in Buda, Ill., the company later being moved to Harvey, a suburb of Chicago. In 1910 he was co-founder of the Ingalls-Shepard Forging Company at Harvey, later merged with the Wyman-Gordon Company of Worcester, Mass.

Shepard is survived by his widow, the son and two sisters, Mrs. E. S. Satterly of Chicago and Mrs. E. F. Beaupre of Aurora, Ill. Burial will be at Aurora Monday.

Father's Day is always the third Sunday in June.

Citizens Asked To Remember Birdhouses; Help Maintain Dixon's Community Kitchen

The report of the Dixon Loyalty League Community Kitchen committee from Nov. 18, '32 to Feb. 1, was made public today, as follows:

Receipts

Donations $377.74

Receipts from bird houses 591.23

Disbursements

Miscellaneous Expense $ 2.22

Equipment 203.93

Labor 176.00

Supplies 231.53

Milk 114.28

Rent 20.00

Bread 68.36

The committee reports that there is a gradual increase in demand from the school children, now feeding approximately 225 per day.

The number of transients and home folks fed since the opening of the kitchen to Feb. 1st was 3449.

Do not forget the bird houses.

BODY OF LITTLE VICTIM OF SADIST SLAYER IS FOUND

15-Year-Old New York Girl Brutally Murdered Last Week

Mineola, N. Y., Feb. 3 — (AP) — "You don't want me to go, do you mother?" said Mary Helen O'Connor, 15 years old, last Friday as she was about to leave for an overnight visit with a friend.

Her mother replied, "Dont pay any attention to my foolish worries, dear."

But last night James O'Connor stood looking into a pile of underbrush near Massapequa, looking down upon a body, and broke only he said:

"It is my child—Mary Helen." She had died after a struggle. That much was clear, for her clothing was torn and there were bruises on her body. But it did not appear she had been attacked criminally. Stains found on her clothing are being analyzed. Police thought they might be iodine, or some dark liquid hurled at the girl by a sadist slayer.

Weapon Not Found

An autopsy late last night failed to establish the time of her death. District Attorney Elvin Edwards said it was a "fair inference that she died the day she left home."

The overnight bag she carried when she left home, and her purse have not been found. Her hat, a stocking and one of her pumps were found 400 yards from the body.

One police theory is that the girl was taken from an automobile near where her body was later found, and that she fought for a distance of 50 feet or more before being clubbed to death.

There is no trace of the weapon with which she was slain.

A ransom note demanding $1,000 for the girl's safe return was received by O'Connor last night.

SEEK KIDNAPING GANG

Fredericksburg, Va., Feb. 3 — (AP) — While 14-year-old Caroline Musante was being treated for shock and exposure, Stafford county officers today pushed their search for an alleged "kidnap" gang members of which, the girl said, abducted her and left her tied to a tree in woods about six miles from here.

The girl, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Musante of Stafford county, was found about 9 o'clock last night, following a search instituted after her parents had become alarmed over her absence. Her discovery was aided by O'Connor last night.

Post Mortem Ordered

A Coroner's physician was interrupted in examination of the body by a telephone from Mrs. Frederick Cortis of Detroit, sister of the dead man, asking that the autopsy be not made.

The Coroner agreed at first, but after a debate over signing papers accepting responsibility for waiver of examination the officials decided they must proceed with the post mortem inquest.

The girl showed the note to her uncle, John Musante, who treated it as a joke, and did not notify authorities.

Rock Island Maid Believed A Suicide

Rock Island Feb. 3 — (AP) — Miss Anna Martels, 18, maid at the home of Henry I. Finkelstein, is dead and Carol Jean, 3-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Finkelstein is in a hospital in a serious condition as the result of what police believe was a suicide plan of the young woman.

Miss Bartels' body was found in the kitchen this morning after a fire caused by an explosion of gas, partially wrecked the Finkelstein bungalow.

The little girl was rescued from an adjoining bedroom after she had been overcome by smoke.

Former Bureau Co. Faces Deficit

New York, Feb. 3 — (AP) — The Metropolitan Opera, after 50 years existence, faced today a financial crisis fraught with gravity for the future of opera in New York.

The estimated deficit for the current season, despite economies, was set at about $350,000 by the New York Times. Paul D. Cravath, chairman of the Opera association's board, was asked if the opera could continue another season.

"I hope so," he said, "but I don't care to add anything to that statement."

It was learned that three plans had been talked of:

1. To reduce salaries further and shorten the season from 16 to 12 weeks.

2. To seek financial support in Chicago as well as New York, and divide its season between the two cities.

3. To scrap the Metropolitan Opera Association and set up instead a small company of American singers only, who would emphasize the work of American composers and librettists.

JUST FOR A NICKEL

Los Angeles — Ed Coleman received 60 days' board and lodging in the county jail because of a five cent piece. Coleman was arrested for the theft of a nickel from a telephone box. Superior Court Judge William T. Agger sentenced Coleman to 60 days in prison, but when he found that Coleman had already been in jail 50 days awaiting trial, he reduced the sentence to 10 days.

LOVE ME, LOVE MY DOG
Los Angeles — It was a case of love her husband and love his dog at the same time with Mrs. Lizzie Stotzheim. In a plea for separate maintenance filed in answer to the divorce of her husband, John, she complained that her hubby had permitted his big dog to sleep on their bed.

The committee reports that there is a gradual increase in demand from the school children, now feeding approximately 225 per day.

The number of transients and home folks fed since the opening of the kitchen to Feb. 1st was 3449.

Do not forget the bird houses.

The income from the bird houses has fallen off materially, and we ask the citizens to remember these houses, and make their small donations, as this is the thing that is going to make it possible for the Kitchen to maintain, and to take care of the constantly increasing numbers asking for help. Our costs are kept at the lowest possible point, and every cent is stretched to its limit. The committee would also ask that any citizen having potatoes, carrots, onions, or canned tomatoes, that donations of these would be gladly received.

Those in charge of the kitchen welcome a visit from the citizens, and they will be shown the equipment, and the manner in which the thing is handled.

DISOWNED SON OF STEEL FIRM HEAD SUICIDES

James Carey Davis Jr. Chicago, Ends Own Life In Hotel

Chicago, Feb. 3 — (AP) — James Carey Davis, Jr., facing an action for alienation of affections and estranged from his wife, was found dying today shortly after he had telephoned his divorced first wife.

Against the wishes of relatives, the Coroner directed an autopsy to determine the cause of death, apparently the result of an overdose of sedatives prescribed for him.

Disinherited son of the late steel executive, Davis had been named Wednesday in a $100,000 suit started by Chester Schram, 23-year-old drug clerk in Evanston, alleging alienation of the affections of Mrs. Schram. Davis himself recently started suit for divorce at Las Vegas, N. M., from the former Betty King who lives on the Davis ranch near Vista, Calif.

The girl's family reported that on last Monday, while enroute to school, the girl picked up a note on the highway addressed "to the gang" and signed "Harry" outlining a plan to kidnap a three-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Porter, also of Stafford county, for ransom. The note was reported also to have mentioned abduction of a 13-year-old girl of the neighborhood to give information which would assist the kidnappers.

The girl showed the note to her uncle, John Musante, who treated it as a joke, and did not notify authorities.

Farmers Barely Have Time Now To Get Chores Done

Chicago, Feb. 3 — (AP) — The official peace and tranquility of a farmer's life were missing from the farm picture today as some tillers of the soil barely found time to get the chores done in between their activities defying mortgage foreclosures.

At Julesburg, Colo., yesterday 500 farmers picked up machinery valued at $3,000 and returned it to farmer George A. Jones.

Led by the Farmers' National Holiday Association an army of 300 rural residents of eight Nebraska and three Colorado counties marched to town after Jones told them he had deeded his possessions to his creditors. The Army "repossessed" his belongings from Julesburg dealers without a struggle.

Against the wishes of relatives, the Coroner directed an autopsy to determine the cause of death, apparently the result of an overdose of sedatives prescribed for him.

Elsewhere the story was somewhat similar.

L. B. Albaugh Iowa State College economist, put in a discordant note when he predicted no upturn in their purchase for less than a five dollar bill of equipment auctioned to settle a $2,750 mortgage.

That an effort will be made to go to court during the busy month of May to prove the legality of their purchase for less than a five dollar bill of equipment auctioned to settle a $2,750 mortgage.

W. A. Doss of Monticello, Ill., who brought about the auction, claimed its results were illegal, but the farmers still had the things they bought on bids of from two to 20 cents. However, they put up a bond to guarantee that the mortgaged property would be produced when demanded.

"Save Children"

Mrs. Roosevelt's Plea To Country

Harrisburg, Pa., Feb. 3—(AP)—Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt said yesterday that in the "saving of our children lies the future of our country."

Speaking before the state conference on malnutrition, the wife of the President-elect declared a low resistance and under-nourishment of children will subject "them to every kind of illness."

"We don't wish to see our country suffer for our not having taken the trouble to see what we could do," she said.

Said that the child who is brought up in an undernourished condition is "usually the one we find later in our prisons and insane asylums."

Mrs. Roosevelt made a plea for wide distribution of relief funds. "Relief money must go as far as possible," she said. "We have no right to waste it."

Vicks Chemists Invite Tests of New Antiseptic

The makers of Vicks VapoRub have now produced an oral antiseptic. It is called Vicks Vorotone Antiseptic. They urge every user of mouth-wash and gargle—for halitosis (impure breath), oral cleanliness, and other uses—to test Vicks Antiseptic and get personally acquainted with its quality and its economy.

Born in a depression year, Vicks Antiseptic is priced accordingly. The regular size is a large 10-ounce bottle—a usual 75c value—or only 35c. For your testing, Dixon druggists are offering a special trial size. This is a 25c value, but is priced at only 10c—while the supply lasts.

New Books Placed In Dixon Library

Last Adam—Cuzzens

The focal figure is a bluff, hard drinking old doctor, whose carelessness, ignorance, and generally outrageous behavior had antagonized the town's most influential family, while his long suspected, but unproved, relations with strong-minded Janet Cardmaker were a scandal to the more conservative villagers. A typhoid epidemic, traced to his neglect, brings to an explosion all the long smoldering spites and grievances.

Never Ask the End—Paterson

To their own candid surprise the three highly civilized Americans—two women and a man—who figure in this story discover that emotional turbulence and adventure do not end with the forties. Their relationship stretches over a long period of years, and when they meet again abroad, and travel together it blossoms into a new and unexpected flowering.

Round-Up—Mulford

Bob Corson of the JC had plenty to think about (without falling in love) for he was sheriff of one of the most law breaking counties in cow land. And it was a particularly bad break that Alice Meadows should be the daughter of the leader of a gang of cattle thieves.

Cynara—Brown

At thirty-five Jim Warlock was a prosperous barrister, happily married. His life was full—then Doris came along, and a gust of passion overcame it all, undermining all that had been so important and turning his well planned existence into the path of tragedy. The story from which the successful play was made.

Technique in Dramatic Art—Bosworth

The author assembles and classifies certain rudimentary principles that concern the technique of acting and play production. Breathing, gesture, character study, public speaking, directorship, lighting and make-up are subjects dealt with.

Stage Scenery and Lighting—Selde & Sellman

The directions are clear and detailed, well illustrated with working drawings, diagrams and photographs.

Make-up—Baird

Each step in the process of make-up is so clearly described and often illustrated with drawings, that it can be followed by amateurs.

Character Make-up—Brandis

If you have not learned about the stiches do not let this bother you for there are complete directions and illustrations for 27 different characters of make-up materials.

Other People's Money & How the Bankers Use It—Brandeis

This criticism of banker control of American business was first published in 1914 and is now reissued with a new forward in which Norman Hapgood points out the connection between the practices denounced by Judge Brandeis and the financial collapse of 1929.

Can America Stay at Home—Simonds

A keen and penetrating criticism of America's relation with Europe since 1914. The book is so fair that although the author points to some form of state socialism as the easiest way out, he gives the reader who prefers conservatism all the apparatus to pick up capitalism and put it on its feet again.

Adventures of Baron Munchausen—

The biggest liar in the world only half expresses this much travailed Baron. In him the faculty for exaggeration and corroborative detail surpasses both art and science and becomes a gift that only the Gods can bestow. Not even modern science can embellish facts so artistically, nor fly so high in the field of nightmarish speculation.

ST. PAUL'S LADIES AID SOCIETY MEETS

The Ladies Aid Society of St. Paul's Lutheran church met on Thursday afternoon in the church parlors for a very good attendance. Wickey gave the scripture reading several songs. The ladies gathered for the occasion and enjoyed an interesting program which was a study of missionary progress in China. The president, Mrs. James A. Barnett, presided over a brief business session. The opening prayer was offered by Mrs. J. E. Newcomb. The worship period was in charge of Mrs. Harry Reitzel, who read a passage of

AWISH

By HELEN WELSHIMER

ISN'T it strange
That now and then
Words you told me
Come back again?

MAYBE it's queer
But I wonder why
Footstep echoes
Still make me cry

NOW when I walk,
Oh anywhere,
Old paths, new ones
Are oddly bare

I'M not afraid
If hills are high,
If there aren't stars
For each night's sky

WOULDNT care
What day's end brings,
If you were near
To laugh at things!

Even Baby Remembered In The Telegraph Wonder Package

ent kinds included in the Wonder Package.

The little wreath on the left would be very attractive on a carriage pillow and the carriage strap could be covered with silk and satin ribbon with an embroidered border like that shown next to the wreath right.

Mothers can think of dozens of ways to use these motifs and when you consider that the cost of each motif is a fraction of a cent, there is much to recommend the Wonder Package.

Twelve Large Sheets

The Wonder Package contains 12 sheets of patterns, each sheet measuring 24 by 36 inches and these have over 800 different designs for embroidery, painting on paper, wood, metal, glass, china and pottery, and the transferring of designs is very simple. All that is necessary is to apply a little water and rub the back of the design with a spoon and when you consider that each design can be transferred more than 10 or 12 times you have several thousand designs from which to choose at a moment's notice.

The mailing price of $1.00 for this huge amount of decoration is so low that it is within the reach of almost everyone who is interested in beautifying the home, clothes, etc. If you prefer to call for the Wonder Package the price is only 88c. You can obtain it at the Dixon Evening Telegraph.

The Dixon Evening Telegraph

Enclosed please find $1.00 for which I wish you would send me the Dixon Evening Telegraph Wonder Package of over 800 transfer patterns.

DIXON'S CONTRIBUTION TO LINCOLN LORE.

The life of Abraham Lincoln, even the minutest details thereof, become of more absorbing interest to students of history every year. All over the world intelligent people read every line they can find that bears on the life of that great world figure. But, strangely enough, the part that Dixon played in Lincoln's life—the important period in his young manhood when he came to Dixon to join the United States Army and to swear his first allegiance to the flag and the Union has been later to save, receives scant attention on the part of collectors and compilers of Lincoln Lore.

The fact that young Lincoln, with a group of friends and companions, made his way overland through a sparsely settled and Indian infested country, from away down in the central part of the state to Dixon to offer his services, and, if need be, his life, in the service of his nation, is certainly a high-light in Lincoln Lore and is a strong indication of the character of the young man who was destined to immortal fame in world history. The coincidence that Second Lieut. Jefferson Davis, who was later to become President of the rebellious confederate states that plunged the nation into bloody civil war by their attempt at secession, was in command of the federal forces in Dixon when Lincoln came here to enlist in the Blackhawk war is merely an interesting side-light. There are many other interesting incidents in connection with Lincoln's enlistment at Dixon, but the fact that he did come here and offer his services is illuminating and presents an episode in his life that has been rather slighted.

Lincoln, of course, visited Dixon on various other occasions. In fact, Dixon and Gettysburg, Pa., are the only two points on the entire length of the nation-spanning Lincoln Highway where the name-sake of that great thoroughfare ever had important contact.

Lincoln's birthday, February twelfth, is at hand. It should mean more in Dixon than in most places and Dixon should make special observance of that famous anniversary. We do not suggest that Dixon commercialize on Lincoln's connection with this city. We propose that this city make more appropriate recognition of that connection and that Dixon could very appropriately give to the vast collection of Lincoln Lore some very valuable and highly instructive facts and details concerning Lincoln's first contribution in his service to the United States.

Lincoln's birthday is, of course, a national holiday, but it usually amounts to little more than a bank holiday, a mere formality. In Dixon, it should become in a time a real holiday, devoted to educational exercises that would tend to give Dixon a more important part in the history of Lincoln's life. The very least we can do at this time is to see to it that on each anniversary of Lincoln's Birthday every class in all of Dixon's schools should be acquainted with the details of young Abraham Lincoln's journey to Dixon and his service to his nation while here. This year the holiday falls on Sunday, but the event should be observed in the schools on Monday. The life of this great American was very close to this community at one time and every boy and girl in school should know about it.

Civic and service clubs should also plan observance of Lincoln's birthday and help to give Dixon its rightful place in the history of his life.

THE CRIMINAL'S CALLOUSNESS.

The callousness with which professional criminals can pursue their trade was seldom better illustrated than in a recent investigation of a disastrous apartment house fire in Cleveland.

In this fire, 13 lives were lost. An investigation has disclosed that the blaze was set by conspirators in an arson plot. Certain men, it is charged, stood to profit by the destruction of the building; so professional firebugs were hired, the blaze was carefully started—and 13 people died!

The men responsible had nothing against these 13 people. They hardly so much as knew of their existence. They were out after money, and they took what looked like an easy way to get it. The mere fact that their plot would cause a wholesale tragedy seems not to have entered their heads at all.

My philosophy is to enjoy all good things on this earth. Don't miss anything, but be moderate in every respect; then you will live long and be happy.—Dr. Adolph Lorenz, 78, noted Viennese surgeon.

Sidelights In News In Capital Of United States

By HERBERT PLUMMER

Washington—The youthful and exuberant Millard Tydings of Maryland has qualified for membership in that group in the senate whose sharp tongues and witty cracks made in unguarded moments return later to plague them.

George Moses of New Hampshire is one of them. His description of progressive republicans as "sons of the wild jackass"—to mention only one of his celebrated cracks—made him a charter member.

And now comes Tydings with his declaration that if he couldn't vote his sentiments "then to hell with this job." It will be a long time before he is allowed to forget that.

They're ribbing him about it in great fashion now.

Taken For A Ride

He could hardly have hoped to escape being taken for a ride by republicans on that statement. It came while he was debating his own proposal to cut a half billion dollars from federal appropriations in an effort to help balance the budget.

The next morning, following a democratic caucus on the question, Tydings arose in the senate and requested permission to withdraw his resolution on the subject.

The senate agreed, but not before the republicans put him on the spot for his crack.

What tickled the republicans the most was that Tyding's remark on the floor did not appear in the Congressional Record as he made it. What the Record quoted him as saying was:

"If we cannot vote reasonably our own sentiments, then who wants the position?"

Senate Gets A Laugh

Vanderberg and Bingham were the republicans who rode him hardest. Vandenberg expressed disappointment that he couldn't find the statement in the Record. Then as the senate chuckled and Tydings blushed he read it from a newspaper.

Bingham then arose with a copy of the Record in his hand. He invited the senate to turn to page 2694 and in a grandiose manner declared: "If we cannot vote reasonably our own sentiments . . ."

He paused for a moment, looked up appealingly, then in a voice scarcely audible concluded ". . . who wants the job?"

The senate and galleries roared and Tydings with them.

PEOPLE'S COLUMN

CHARGES JUGGLING

To convince the small business man and local taxpayer how the National Economy League have juggled the figures of Spanish War Veterans. The National Economy League makes the statement that only 5,000 men lost their lives by wounds and disease and the Spanish War lasted only 114 days. Congress declares the Spanish War, Philippine Insurrection and Boxer Rebellion in China, as all one war from April 26, 1898 to July 4, 1902, 4 years, 4 months and 14 days, average service of a Spanish Vet, being 14 months. The facts, are in possession of Major William E. Baldwin Camp No. 23, United Spanish War Veteran, Department of Illinois, and appointed by authority of the Illinoian Spanish War Memorial Commission, created by the Fifty-Third General Assembly, June 15, 1923. Illinois was the first state in the Union to tender support and troops to the Federal government in the Spanish War on February 17, 1898 two days after the sinking of the Battleship Maine in Havana Harbor, February 15, 1898. On April 27th, the day after formal declaration of war, seven regiments of Infantry and one regiment of Cavalry were mobilized ready for any eventuality at Camp Tanner Springfield, which action was taken pursuant to orders from the War Department. Subsequently one request of the State, Battery A, Field Artillery from Danville, Captain Yeager commanding was mobilized at Camp Tanner on April 30th under the second of the President's 9th Illinois Infantry (Provisional) under Col. James R. Campbell, were mustered into service on July 4th, 11th and the 8th Illinois Infantry colored from the Colonel down to the last enlisted man in Co. M. were mustered into service July 23, 1898. In addition to these organized units many thousands of young men from Illinois offered themselves for enlistments in the Army, Navy and Marine Corps and were accepted in large numbers. Illinois therefore, justified her loyal traditions and took a first place of honor in the nation's service in 1898. Illinois had in service 9 regiments of Infantry, one regiment of Cavalry and one Battery of Artillery, making a total of land forces 15,217 Commissioned Officers and enlisted men. The United States had been at peace since the Civil War and had no quarrel with any foreign nation resulting in resort to arms since the Mexican War in 1848 and as usual we find ourselves in no state of preparedness and it was necessary to delay the formal declaration of war until April 26th, during which time the enemy was strengthening his forces, when war was finally declared Spain had in Cuba under arms 197,000, 155,000 were regulars, and protected by fortification of no mean character. She had more battleships in Cuban waters and in the Philippines, that were considered far more superior to ours. The blowing up of the "Maine" was not an immediate cause of the war. The real cause was that Cuba, Porto Rico and the Philippines must be relieved from Spanish tyranny and butchery by high officials of the Spanish government.

Every call of the President for volunteers was met by offers of twice as many young men as had been called for. Here are the exact figures of those who lost their lives or made the supreme sacrifice.

355 Commissioned Officers, 19,237 enlisted men, or a total of 10,602

189,474 young men were in the U. S. Army of all arms of service, 10,602 made the supreme sacrifice leaving a balance of 447,872. There are only 210,000 Spanish War Veterans living to date, 237,872 have died since July 4, 1902 or on an average of 780 per year. Now, they are dying at the average rate of 1,500 a year and it will be only a few short years when you will not see a Spanish War Vet, meaning the little bronze button of the United Spanish War Veteran and the Spanish War will be only a memory.

Daily Health Talk

"Present-day civilization is not conducive to rest and repose. Speed, hurly-burly activity, excitement and other bi-jacking habits are prone to make most persons exceedingly jealous of the amount of sleep they finally allow themselves. And while, perhaps, there is just complaint against a mode of living that constantly demands the burning of the candle at both ends, one has a right vigorously to object to those fathers and mothers who attempt to silence their infants by artificial means on the excuse that the old folks need their rest. This attitude is more general than is suspected," states Dr. Ralph Burkhardt of the state Health Department's dental section.

"For such parents, worn to a frazzle by their own zealous desire to 'live' or even by the day's normal exactions, the pacifier occupies a position of importance. And having discovered its comparative effectiveness during the night, it becomes easy for the mother to make constant use of this noise neutralizer.

"However, like many other attempts to detour nature, it has its bad points. In the first place, baby needs to cry — however illogical that need may appear to time and over-wrought parents. It is part of his development.

Tonight basketball fans have an excellent opportunity of viewing some real basketball when two North Central contenders, Dixon and Belvidere, clash in a league doubleheader. The first contest will get under way at 7 o'clock with the main tilt immediately following. An added attraction is the appearance of the Dixon Junior Civic band, under Director C. B. Price.

In the games on the local floor thus far in the campaign the patrons have been more than well rewarded for their attendance. The first two home games were victories over Polo, 24-13, and Mendota, 27-21. After a series of road contests Dixon returned to stage its first thriller, a 22-20 overtime verdict over DeKalb. Nothing need be mentioned of the hectic final minutes of the Rock Falls' battle of last Saturday.

When Belvidere and Dixon take the floor tonight all predictions point to a close score and all kinds of action. Dixon has won three and lost two conference games. Belvidere is in second position of the league losing only to the leader, Sterling, in its five games played thus far.

If this evening's and Saturday night's school engagements fail to offer enough basketball for local enthusiasts then the "bugs" are urged to see the local grade school All-Stars in their twin performance Saturday afternoon. The north side high school gym will be the scene of the double-header with Freeport, the first game to start at 2 o'clock.

Coach Roundy probably will start Coakley and Cotter at forwards, Rebeck, center, McConaughay and Miller, guards. This quintet has yet to suffer a defeat.

TONY CANZONERI IS FORCED TO GO AFTER WELTERS

King of Lightweights Has No Rivals In His Class

New York, Feb. 3—(AP)—Tony Canzoneri, king of the world's lightweights, has become the man without a rival.

Generally rated the best fighter for his weight and inches in the ring, Tony has fought himself out of opposition in his own class and must seek competition from heavier foes.

Tonight in Madison Square Garden he faces the hard-hitting Vancouver welterweight, Billy Townsend, over the ten round distance and though he will be outweighed over 10 pounds, Canzoneri feels a 3 to 1 favorite with few takers.

Townsend is a good fighter but none of the experts can see him "taking" the Canzoneri who handled rough, tough Billy Petrole such a sound lacing in his last lightweight defense.

Tony is campaigning for a crack at Jimmy McLarnin despite the fact that the Irishman, often called the "uncrowned" welterweight champion would outweigh him by 15 pounds. Canzoneri feels that a victory over McLarnin should put him in direct line for a shot at Jackie Fields and the welterweight title.

CLEVER YOUTH

FORT WORTH, TEX.—Youthful magazine salesmen have reached a point where a housewife's excuse that she has no money to buy a magazine no longer daunts them. "That's all right," says the boy. "I'll take a bottle of milk." The milk bottles are good for five cents cash in any grocery store here, and the magazine boys are doing a rushing business.

Gossip About Baseball Stars And Near Stars

New York, Feb. 3—(AP)—The Brooklyn Dodgers have received the signed contract of pitcher Fred Heimach, the club announced today.

Heimach, who with William Watson Clark forms the southpaw division of the Dodger pitching staff, appeared in 36 games last season, chiefly in relief roles. He was credited with nine victories against four defeats.

At his home in Martinsburg, W. Va., Hack Wilson, rotund Dodger outfielder, revealed last night he had rejected a new offer from the club. The Dodgers were understood to have offered Hack $9,500 for his labors in 1933, as compared with $16,500 in 1932. But Wilson says it still isn't enough. A ten per cent cut, he said, would be acceptable to him.

Lloyd Brown has joined Rick Ferrell as the St. Louis Brown's representatives in the hold-out parade. Brown, a southpaw, was obtained in trade with Washington.

The New York Yankees announced they had assigned the contract of outfielder George Selkirk to their Newark International League farm.

Honus Wagner, generally regarded as the greatest shortstop in baseball history, signed a contract with the Pittsburgh Pirates as coach and general assistant to Manager George Gibson. Honus, now 42 years old, spent his entire major league career with the Pirates.

Luzerne Blue, veteran first baseman, was given his unconditional release by the Chicago White Sox. Blue, who has been in the majors for 12 years, played with Detroit and St. Louis before coming to the White Sox in 1931. The Sox also cut admit a rookie catcher, Charles Wax of Virginia Poly Institute.

BOZEMAN LOST HARD MATCH TO WELK. COCHRAN

Sensational, Popular California Cueist Eliminated

Chicago, Feb. 3—(AP)—A triumph in his first try for the world three cushion billiards title and the big share of the prize money will go to Welker Cochran, San Francisco's balkline master tonight if he can beat Harry Layton, the Sedalia, Mo., veteran who has held the championship ten times.

Cochran, famous at balkline, especially at 18.2, but a comparative newcomer at three cushions, last night removed J. N. Bozeman, Jr., the semi-pro youngster from Vallejo, Calif., 50 to 40 in 41 innings, from the championship scene, leaving Layton as his last obstacle.

Bozeman, removed by Layton, was at 18.2, but a comparative newcomer at three cushions, last night removed J. N. Bozeman, Jr., the semi-pro youngster from Vallejo, Calif., 50 to 40 in 41 innings, from the championship scene, leaving Layton as his last obstacle.

Bozeman gave Cochran a brisk battle, leading off with a run of seven. However, his touch deserted him and he went scoreless for the next seven innings, while Cochran picked up a 15 to 7 lead.

Bozeman went ahead in the twenty-third, but Cochran managed to tie it up in the thirty-fourth, and his high run of eight in the thirty-ninth put him safely ahead. He picked up four in the next inning and accomplished the match point in the forty-first.

Should Layton win tonight the playoff for the title will be held Monday night.

BEST FIELDING FIRST BASEMAN GIVEN RELEASE

Lu Blue Is Cut Adrift By Management Of Chicago Sox

Chicago, Feb. 3—(AP)—Characterized as the "best fielding first baseman in baseball," by Chicago White Sox heads before the 1932 season, Lou Blue today was at liberty to sell his talents elsewhere.

In 1931, after the Sox had obtained Blue from the St. Louis Browns on waivers, he came back to turn in a great season afied and as a leadoff man at bat. Last year, however, he slumped, failed to finish the season as a regular, and yesterday was given his unconditional release as a ten-yearman. It was reported that Cleveland and Philadelphia were interested in him.

Blue's first season as a regular in the American League was 1921 with Detroit. He made good with a bank and for the next four seasons was ranked as a star, but in December, 1927, was traded with Heinie Manush to the Browns for Chick Galloway, Elam van Gilder and Harry Rice. He was let go by the Browns for the waiver price after a poor season in 1930.

In 1931 he was generally rated as the best leadoff man in the American League, walking 127 times—second only to Babe Ruth who was walked 136 times—and was hit by pitched balls three times, for a total of 130 free trips, the best in the circuit.

American League Schedule Problem

Chicago, Feb. 3—(AP)—American League fans may have to wait until April, only a week or so before the opening of the championship season for a look at the schedule.

President William Harridge has not neglected his part of the important job of building the schedule. On the contrary, he is working overtime on it, in an effort to arrange the best possible dates for the clubs which need such help to attract cash customers.

Income Taxes Explained By Commissioner

(Editor's note—This is the last of three articles written for the Associated Press by David Burnet, Commissioner of Internal Revenue, explaining the new income tax law.)

By DAVID BURNET
Commissioner of Internal Revenue
Washington, Feb. 2—(AP)—The normal tax rate is at the rate of 4 per cent on the first $4,000 of net income in excess of the personal exemption, credit for dependents, etc., and at the rate of 8 per cent on the remainder of such excess amounts. The surtax—in computing which many taxpayers make mistakes usually to their own disadvantage—begins on net incomes in excess of $6,000. The rates increase in accordance with the amount of net income included in varying so-called income tax brackets.

The Revenue Act of 1932 makes no provisions for an earned income credit. Taxpayers are advised to read carefully the instructions on Form 1040 relating to the surtax, as well as all instructions thereon, before preparing their returns.

Partnerships
Partnerships as such are not subject to taxation but are required to file returns of income. The individual members of a partnership are, however, taxable upon their distributive shares of the net income of such partnerships, whether distributed or not, and are required to include such distributive shares in their individual returns. Syndicates, pools, joint ventures, etc., are treated under the revenue act of 1932 as partnerships.

Corporations
Every corporation not expressly exempt from taxation must file a return regardless of the amount of its income if it had a corporate existence during any portion of the taxable year.

The return of a corporation should be sworn to by the president, vice president, or other principal officer and by the treasurer or assistant treasurer, and it should be filed with the Collector of Internal Revenue of the district in which is located the principal place of business or principal office or agency of the corporation.

A BOOK A DAY

If you haven't yet got squared up on this technocracy business, there are several books on the market now that might prove very helpful to you.

To begin with, there is "Introduction to Technocracy," by Howard Scott and others, in which the authentic doctrine, graven on stone, is handed down direct from Sina. Agree with it or not, you'll at least find it adequately expounded here, and while the book is recent about the way in which the world of technocracy is to come into existence it is stimulating and provocative to a marked degree.

An even better way of approach—better, because unbiased—is provided in "What Is Technocracy?" by Allen Raymond.

Here a qualified reporter, not only expounds technocracy, but sketches in what he has been able to learn of the career and personality of Howard Scott, points out the fields in which the technocrats' statements of fact have been flatly contradicted, and adds a thoughtful and intelligent discussion of the entire business.

Then there is Stuart Chase's "Technocracy—An Interpretation," one of the John Day Company's pamphlets. Mr. Chase is sympathetic to the new gospel, but his eyes are fully open to its defects; and, as you might expect, his little pamphlet is eminently readable and highly interesting.

These three books will at least give you an idea of what all the shouting is about.

SHE ATE ALL-BRAN TWELVE YEARS WITH FINE RESULTS

Delicious Cereal Relieves Constipation

Read this very enthusiastic letter:
"Something like eleven or twelve years ago, I began eating Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. When I started, it was called simply Kellogg's Bran, and I believe it was one of the first products of the kind on the market."

"My friends often laugh at my fondness for ALL-BRAN. It gives such a clean taste in the mouth, and I do not feel satisfied until I have had my ALL-BRAN."

"If the Kellogg Company should ever stop manufacturing ALL-BRAN, there is one who would be greatly disappointed."—Miss Amy Person, University Park, Iowa.

Science says that ALL-BRAN provides "bulk" to exercise the intestines, and vitamin B to further aid regularity. Also iron for the blood.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is much like that of leafy vegetables. How much safer than taking patent medicines—often harmful. Just eat two tablespoonsfuls daily for most types of constipation. For serious cases, try it three times daily. I never relieved this way, see your doctor.

Sold in the red-and-green pack age. At all grocers. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

SUBLETTE NEWS

By Mrs. H. D. Oescher

Sublette — Miss Lola Fuhrman spent last Thursday visiting at the home of Rev. and Mrs. H. D. Oescher.

The Sublette Woman's Club met at the home of Mrs. Emma Trunkenbrod last Thursday afternoon. The meeting was opened by singing "Long, Long Ago." The president then led in prayer. After a short business session consisting of reports from the various officers and committees, the Library Committee then presented two new rules to be added to the Library Rules that were formulated when the Library was first established in Sublette. The Club cast a unanimous vote in favor of adopting these rules.

Mrs. Ann Barton then took charge of the program. Her subject for the afternoon was, "What Can Literature Do For Me?" She gave a very interesting and helpful talk upon this subject because she is very much interested in literature and has taken courses from Universities upon this subject. After her splendid talk the remainder of the program was as follows:

Poem, "A Book"—Mrs. Ella A. Hatch.

Piano solo, "The Glow Worm,"—Mrs. Helen Long.

Reading, "Philosophy" — Mrs. Anna Barton.

Editorial, "Why Should Anyone Be Broke?"—Mrs. Helen Long.

The hostess then served delicious refreshments.

The next meeting will be held in the parlors of the church on February 9th. Mrs. Helen Long is in charge of the program. She will present the life of Lincoln with a chalk talk. The editor for the meeting is "And There Are Rails to Split."

Mr. and Mrs. William Blei of Freeport, visited at the homes of Erbes and Mike Lauers last week end.

The Clink School opened the first of this week after being closed for nearly two weeks on account of Scarlet Fever in the district.

Miss Hilda Bansau who is attending Normal, and Miss Elda Bansau who is teaching school as

ILLINOIS MEN HELD BY WARDEN AT ANOKA, MINN.

"Few Fish" They Hoped To Take To Their Friends Gone

Anoka, Minn.—"What," said Game Warden James Wesley of Anoka to the driver of a heavily laden sedan with Illinois license plates, "have you got in the back of your car to make it sag so?"

The answer given to a game warden, obviously was the wrong one.

"Just a few fish," was the way the man replied, "will you have a couple?"

"No," said Warden Wesley, "I won't have just a couple. I'll take them all."

The three occupants of the car were on their way back to Sheffield, Ill., from Lake Winnebago, they informed the warden. They had been at the lake but one day.

Started Investigation

Thereupon Warden Wesley ordered the car to the Anoka curb, and started to investigate its contents. Its three occupants stood around, shifting uneasily.

"A few fish, eh?" went on the warden, running his hand through a pile of prime northern pike that took up the back seat of the car.

"Well, what's this under the fish?"

"Oh," said one of the three, "that's just more fish."

"Well," said Warden Wesley, "I've been a game warden for seven years now, and that's the first time I ever saw a fish with hair on it." Thereupon he pulled a 260-pound dressed buck out from under the pile.

"I suppose," he commented, "you'll be telling me that this also is a fish." And he jerked a couple of partridge out after the buck. A fresh deer-hide followed.

Made Big Haul

When he had finished, he had a pile on the sidewalk containing 204 pounds of first-class pike, some of them speared and some of them caught on a hook. There were a number of partridge, the detuned buck, whose meat was in prime condition and the deer-hide.

"That," he said, surveying his capture, "is the best fish story I ever saw."

G. A. Thompson, one of the men, pleaded guilty to two counts, illegal possession of a deer, and illegal possession of game fish. A fine of $200 and costs was assessed and paid. Today the three men were back on their way to Illinois, sadder but wiser, their car approximately 500 pounds lighter than when they struck Anoka.

WEST BROOKLYN

By HENRY GEHANT

WEST BROOKLYN—The local Nubbins won a close game from the Compton Athletics Tuesday evening at the Compton school auditorium, by a score of 40 to 38. The preliminary game was won by Compton 26 to 16. The opposing team's weight was offset by the local speed. Neither team handled the ball very well and victory hinged from the Comptonites inability to stop Greyer's shots, he having scored 25 of the 40 points.

At the beginning of the second half, with West Brooklyn losing 16 to 19, Greyer began dropping in one long shot after another until the Nubbins overcame the lead. Compton then rallied and was twice within two points of tying the score. Wayne Archer was Compton's star scoring 22 points.

A double header game has been scheduled for here next Friday when the high school will play the Lee high and the Nubbins will play Welland.

The lineup and box scores was as follows:

West Brooklyn—
Greer, f. Herman, f.; A. Bettner, s.; Schnuckel, c.; Elliott, g.; White, g.—Total 40.
